FULL TEXT OF THE PROPOSED REGULATION:

6C7-9.002 Tuition Waivers for Graduate Assistants and Fellows

(1) This regulation applies to all graduate assistants and fellows, except those graduate assistants in employment code 9185.

(2) A student whose assistantship or fellowship is terminated due to failure to abide by its terms will be liable for fees that otherwise would be covered by the associated tuition remission.

(3) Graduate fellows will receive waivers that cover the cost of resident tuition.

(4) Graduate assistants with a single appointment of at least 0.5 FTE or two appointments of at least 0.25 FTE each:

(a) graduate teaching assistants (employment codes 9183, 9184, and 9187) will receive waivers that cover the cost of resident tuition or will have the cost of resident tuition paid by the employing unit; and

(b) graduate research assistants (employment codes 9181 and 9182) or graduate assistants (employment code 9186) will have the cost of resident tuition paid by university funds (i.e., through grants, contracts, college or division funds, foundation funds or through a formal, written university-approved agreement).

(5) Any non-resident graduate fellow or any non-resident graduate assistant receiving resident tuition remission as described in paragraphs (3) and (4) above shall be classified as in-state for tuition purposes in each semester of appointment.

(6) For those graduate assistants with a single appointment of at least 0.25 FTE but less than 0.5 FTE:

(a) non-resident graduate teaching assistants (employment codes 9183, 9184, and 9187), non-resident graduate research assistants (9181 and 9182), and non-resident graduate assistants (employment code 9186) shall not be classified as in-state for tuition purposes and any non-resident tuition cost obligations must be paid or remitted through other means;

(b) graduate teaching assistants (employment codes 9183, 9184 and 9187) will receive waivers that cover one-half of the cost of resident tuition;

(c) graduate research assistants (employment codes 9181 and 9182) will have one-half of the cost of resident tuition paid by university funds (grants, contracts, college or division funds, foundation funds or through a formal, written university-approved agreement); and

(d) the employing unit will pay one-half of the cost of resident tuition for graduate assistants (employment code 9186).

Authority: BOG Resolution dated January 7, 2003, General Appropriations Act, 2008.
