

UCF-2.006 Acceleration Mechanisms.

(1) The use of acceleration mechanisms shall be governed by the Articulation Agreement between the state universities and the public community colleges of Florida, Florida Board of Governors Regulations and Sections 1007.23 and 1007.27, F.S.

(2) A maximum of 45 semester hours in any combination of extension, College Board Advanced Placement Program (AP), International Baccalaureate Program (IB), correspondence, College Level Examination Program (CLEP), Armed Forces Services School Credits, and University Credit by Examination credit will be accepted by the University and may be applied toward an undergraduate degree. Credit earned by acceleration mechanisms also applies towards satisfaction of the Summer Attendance Requirement. The acceptance of credit for degree purposes shall be subject to state statutes and review by the appropriate college academic standards committee.

(3) The University of Central Florida shall award credit for specific courses identified by the Department of Education for which competency has been demonstrated by successful passage of examinations of the CLEP, AP, IB, Cambridge AICE exams, DAN TES, and Excelsior College Examinations. Credit is awarded only if exam scores are sufficiently high at the time the score is received at UCF. Credit will not be awarded if it duplicates credit already awarded.

(4) Regularly enrolled degree-seeking undergraduate students at the University of Central Florida may participate in the University course credit by examination program. Prior approval to participate in the program must be obtained from the chair of the department in which the course is offered. Credit by examination shall not be given for any course lower in content than courses in the same discipline in which a student is currently enrolled or has completed.

(5) Credit by examination cannot be used to raise a grade in a course previously completed or to meet the twenty-five percent residency hours requirement.
