FULL TEXT OF THE PROPOSED REGULATION AMENDMENT:

UCF-3.0122 Resignation and Nonrenewal of Non-unit Faculty and Administrative and Professional Staff Members.

(1) Resignation by the Employee.

(a) Non-unit Faculty and Administrative and Professional (“A&P”) staff members shall give one month’s written notice of resignation if possible.

(b) Failure to provide at least two (2) weeks’ written notice of resignation will result in the designation of the employee as ineligible for rehire, except in cases of medical or family emergency, or where the employee’s early departure is approved by the University.

(c) Employees are required to work their resignation notice period unless on approved leave of absence. Failure to work during the resignation notice period will result in the designation of the employee as ineligible for rehire.

(2) Nonrenewal by the University.

(a) Non-unit administrative faculty and A&P staff members have no expectation of continued employment beyond the terms listed herein. These employees may be given a notice of nonrenewal for any reason, subject to the notice provisions herein, at any time during their employment, and such notice supersedes any term provisions of an appointment or contract. Notice is provided to allow time for the employee to seek other employment, either with UCF or elsewhere.

(b) The University reserves the right to terminate employment. An employee may be notified of nonrenewal at any time during their employment, and this supersedes any term provisions of an appointment or contract.

(c) Nonrenewal means an employee is given written notice of that his or her employment with the University will end at the time set forth in the written notice of termination of the employment relationship with the University after the end of the applicable notice period as set forth below.

(3) Notice periods: Terms and Conditions of Notice; Notice Periods

(e) Non-unit Faculty and A&P staff members with ten (10) years or more of employment in their current pay plan may be given twenty (20) weeks’ written notice terminating the employment relationship.

(f) Notwithstanding any provision of this regulation, employees hired on or moved to Executive Service appointments may have their employment terminated with sixty (60) days’ written notice of nonrenewal, regardless of how long the individual has been employed with the University.

(4) The decision to nonrenew a University employee shall not be based on constitutionally or statutorily impermissible grounds.

(5) Following receipt of the notice of nonrenewal, the employee may be reassigned to other duties and responsibilities or be placed on administrative leave in accordance with Regulation 3.040(16)(l). Regardless of a reassignment, however, the employee is entitled to the same level of salary he or she received prior to reassignment. An employee reassigned during a notice of nonrenewal period is committed to compensate the employee until the effective date of nonrenewal. An employee on notice of nonrenewal shall not receive any pay increase during the notice period.

(5) At the time of or following issuance of a notice of nonrenewal to any employee, the University may elect in its discretion to pay the employee for all or a portion of the notice period, as may be allowed under Florida law. If the University elects this option, it shall pay the employee an amount, less withholding, equal to the salary for that portion of the notice period which the University is paying out, and the employee’s employment shall terminate immediately.
