FULL TEXT OF THE PROPOSED REGULATION AMENDMENT:

UCF-3.0191 Disciplinary Action - University Support Personnel System.

(1) Scope and Purpose.

- (a) This regulation applies to all University Support Personnel System employees of the university with regular status. The provisions of this regulation are subject to applicable provisions of collective bargaining agreements. Employee discipline is an action that is to be undertaken with care, objectivity, and with full consideration of the rights and interests of both the employee and the university.
- (b) The university subscribes to the principle of the use of discipline to correct employee conduct and behavior. Such discipline will normally be issued in a progressive manner, dependent upon the facts and circumstances of each case. Penalties will be imposed, dependent upon the seriousness of the offense and any aggravating or mitigating circumstances, or as otherwise required by law.
- (c) Probationary Employees: The probationary period shall be a working-test period. USPS employees must successfully complete a probationary period upon initial hire before they earn regular status; USPS employees must also complete a probationary period upon rehire to a USPS position. For purposes of discipline, regular status refers to an employee's status in the USPS and not a specific position.
- Employees serving a probationary status in the USPS appointment may be dismissed during this probationary period without the use of the standards set forth in this regulation and without the right of appeal.

(2) Guidelines on Employee Discipline. The immediate supervisor has the primary responsibility for taking or requesting disciplinary action against an employee, but should consult with their higher level leadership. Human Resources has the responsibility of providing guidance to the various departmental units with regard to the administration of disciplinary actions and for assuring that they are accomplished in accordance with USPS regulations, university policies and guidelines, and any applicable collective bargaining agreement. In cases involving Title IX sexual harassment as defined in University Regulation 3.001, appropriate discipline will be determined by the decision-maker following a live hearing according to the procedures located in the University's Title IX Grievance Policy, UCF 2-012; such discipline will then be administered by the appropriate supervisor and in keeping with other applicable university procedures.

(3) Delegation of Authority. Discipline may only be administered by the supervisor who has been delegated the authority to do so. This delegation of authority varies with the severity of the disciplinary action and is identified in the following table:

Disciplinary Action	Authority
Oral Reprimand	Employee's immediate supervisor or higher-level supervisor
Written Reprimand	Employee's immediate supervisor or higher-level supervisor with the approval of the department head
Suspension, Discharge	The dean, director or department head shall arrange for a review of the proposed action by the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee. If the proposed action is approved, the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her designee, will implement the suspension/discharge.

(4) Types of Disciplinary Action.

- (a) Oral Reprimand – Involves a discussion between the supervisor and the employee regarding the infraction with an emphasis on correcting the employee's behavior. A written confirmation of an oral reprimand shall be kept in the employee's local departmental file.
- (b) Written Reprimand – For more serious or repeated cases of infractions, the supervisor, with approval of the second level supervisor, will counsel the employee as to the correct and expected behavior as well as record the circumstances of the violation in memorandum form, giving the original to the employee and maintaining a copy in either the local departmental file or noting that a copy will be sent to the employee's official personnel file housed in Human Resources. Written reprimands resulting from an official university investigation must be submitted to the official personnel file housed in Human Resources.
- (c) Suspension – The suspension of an employee shall normally be based on the recommendations of the supervisor and shall be subject to the approval of the dean, director or department head and the Chief Human Resources Officer or his/her designee to ensure consistency of action throughout the institution. The Chief Human Resources Officer or his/her designee will issue all suspensions. A written reprimand in lieu of suspension represents a suspension level disciplinary action, but one where the action is documented as a reprimand and the employee continues to work and collect wages.

- (d) Discharge – When less severe actions fail in correcting an employee’s job-related behavior, or when the offense requires immediate separation from employment, a discharge action should be taken. The supervisor shall normally recommend the action, and it shall be subject to the approval of the dean, director or department head and the Chief Human Resource Officer or his/her designee, who shall issue the discharge. If authorized by the Chief Human Resources Officer or his/her designee, an employee may be placed on administrative leave with or without pay pending an investigation, which may be continued between the notice of proposed disciplinary action and the date of final action. Employees who are discharged for disciplinary reasons will not be eligible for rehire.

(5) Standards for Disciplinary Actions. Included herein are standards for the administration of disciplinary actions for various types of offenses. The following list is not all-inclusive, and the disciplinary action selected for a particular offense will be chosen based on the facts of the specific situation taking into consideration any extenuating circumstances. Decisions regarding disciplinary action, including the level of discipline to impose, will consider the employee’s prior disciplinary record excluding: any written reprimand that is more than two years old and any oral reprimand that is more than one year old. Such reprimands will not be used for escalating the level of disciplinary action but can be referenced as background. Suspensions and written reprimands in lieu of suspension can be used indefinitely, with no time limit whatsoever. These standards do not preclude the imposition of more or less severe penalties depending upon all circumstances surrounding a particular incident.

- (a) Absence Without Authorized Leave. The failure to secure approval for an absence from work during the established shift or work period. Included under this standard are absences that are not reported to management in accordance with departmental or university guidelines.

Provided, however, that the failure to secure approval for an absence of two or more consecutive days shall be considered a second occurrence; and the failure to secure approval for an absence of three or more consecutive days shall be considered a third occurrence. This standard shall also apply to employees who fail to return to work as specified in an approved leave of absence.
