

UCF-1.014 University Committees.

The University may establish committees as necessary to carry out specific functions of the institution. These committees will be classified as follows:

(1) Advisory Committees. An advisory committee will function only as a recommending body to the appointing authority or designee. Advisory committees may be ad hoc or continuing.

(2) Operating Committees. These committees will be invested with the authority to formulate the university position within their area of interest. They are the final deciding body and decisions or recommendations will not require approval by the appointing authority. These include:

(a) Residency Appeals Committees (undergraduate and graduate) – appointed by the President of the University for the purpose of hearing appeals from students who have been denied residency or change of residency status.

(b) The Fee Appeals Committee – appointed by the Vice President for Administration and Finance for the purpose of hearing appeals from students who have been charged certain fees.

(c) The Admissions and Standards Committee – a reporting committee of the Faculty Senate comprised of faculty and non-faculty members for the purpose of hearing appeals for undergraduate admission or readmission and academic record changes (such as late withdrawal, late grade forgiveness, etc.).

(d) The University Parking Citation Appeals Committee – appointed pursuant to Regulation UCF-6.007 for the purpose of hearing appeals from persons issued parking violation tickets by the university.
